

setting your space

Dress your reading table and space with colors and items you associate with each season. Add flowers, stones, candle colors, and a spread cloth which reminds you of the season. When you are ready, perform the ritual below.

Draw one card per seasonal month and then at the end of the season, draw the final topic card for the message this season brought to you.

Record the reading and messages in your Tarot PDA.

card layout

card interpretation

- 1- The Topic of the season. Draw this at the end of the seasonal ritual.
- 2- What insights does the first month of the season bring?
- 3- What insight does the second month of the season bring?
- 4- What insight does the third month of the season bring?

